

WOMEN, WEALTH, AND WISDOM SERIES: LEGAL UPDATES

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 25, 6-8PM PT

Get expert advice on important legal topics such as employment law, family law, and estate planning.

Join us as we bring together a panel of attorneys who specialize in employment law, family law, and estate planning as they offer advice and insight into the major legal issues you or someone you are close to is likely to face in these areas.

Topics include:

- Incapacity planning and death planning for your health care decisions and assets
- The default system on death: transferring assets through probate court and how to avoid it
- Planning for minor children and pets
- COVID-19 related challenges for the workplace after a remote year
- Plus more

SPEAKER BIOS

NATALIE ALAMEDDINE

Natalie Alameddine is an employment and labor law attorney at the law firm Blank Rome LLP in Los Angeles. She represents and defends employers in a wide range of labor and employment matters, including discrimination, harassment, retaliation, wrongful termination, misclassification, and wage and hour class actions. She also advises employers on policy updates, handbook revisions, separation agreements, and other employment issues that arise. Natalie graduated from UCLA with a Political Science degree in 2009 and obtained her law degree from UC Hastings College of the Law in 2013. Natalie was recently honored as a “2021, Ones to Watch” Best Lawyers in America© in the category of Labor and Employment Law – Management. In her spare time, Natalie enjoys returning to Westwood for In-n-Out and confusing people with her identical twin sister (who is also a Bruin!).

JACQUELINE COMBS

As a former corporate counsel for both private and publicly traded companies, Jacqueline has advised her clients on a wide range of legal issues, including drafting and managing corporate contracts, merger and acquisition due diligence and integration, financial and insurance regulatory matters, and business risk assessment. Since practicing family law exclusively, Jacqueline has integrated her experience as a prior corporate counsel into the intricacies involved in resolving all aspects of family law disputes, including high-asset and high-income dissolution matters, premarital and postnuptial agreements, and high-conflict custody cases. Jacqueline was voted a “Rising Star” by Superlawyers in 2021. She graduated from UCLA in 2009 and from Chapman School of Law in 2012.

JESSICA G. GORDON

Jessica G. Gordon has been practicing in the area of estate planning, probate, and trust administrations since graduating from law school in 2012. On July 1, Jessica is excited to be launching her own practice, Gordon Trust Law. Prior to opening her own firm, she worked for some of the top trusts & estates attorneys in Los Angeles, most recently at Thompson Coburn LLP. In 2019, Jessica was honored in the Los Angeles Business Journal as one of the 75 Most Influential Women Attorneys in Los Angeles for her work in trusts and estates, and in 2018, by the Century City Chamber of Commerce as one of five “Women of Achievement.” Jessica currently serves on the Executive Committee of the LA County Bar Association’s Trusts & Estates Section, and previously served as President of the Barristers/Young Attorney Section of the LA County Bar Association, elected by over 11,000 members. She has been voted a “Rising Star” by Superlawyers magazine every year since 2017. Jessica graduated from UCLA, cum laude, in 2009 and from USC Gould School of Law in 2012.
